WHY LESS SLIDES IS BETTER THAN MORE SLIDES

- Devoxx France runs on 3 days
- Audience loves live coding and demo
- Too much bullet points is super boring
- More text : less concentration from the audience that will just read your slides
- So this is exactly what you should not do

BIGGER IS YOUR CODE, BETTER IS THE EXPLAIN

SHOW ME SHOME CODE !

Try to keep a font size as big as possible.

Remember also that too much code on one slide is useless. The audience reads this text and does not listen to your presentation anymore. Try to split on different slides your presentation.

The image features a snake's head and upper body against a dark, textured background. The snake's skin has distinct patterns of brown, tan, and black. It appears to be resting on a rough, light-colored rock. The lighting highlights the scales and the snake's profile.
